From the Dispatch.

E. H. Heath & Co., is the style of a new grain-firm in town.

Mrs. Geo. Orr arrived from Sedalia Missouri, Friday evening and we understand will remain here.

A grove meeting is being held at Niblo's grove southwest of town by the Adventists. The meetings began Sunday and will last two weeks.

Cashier Linder informs us that the Hoisington State Bank is now paying out $2,000 a day for wheat checks. This amount will be doubled in another week.

Mrs. W. W. Keyes and Cora Peck are visiting friends in Hoisington. They came from near Boston, Massachusetts, where they now reside, several weeks ago and have been visiting George Peck, down on the Walnut.

The three weeks old child of Fred Prindle and wife died on Sunday night. The little one was apparently well at bed time and no thought of it suffering came to them until they awakened in the morning and found it dead.

Dave Raerick, son of John Raerick of this city, is in the Klondike region of Alaska digging for gold. He sent his sister Anna, who lives at Ellinwood, the result of the first pan he washed out—amounting to about $3. He could write but a short note on a scrap of paper as there was no writing paper in the camp.

The train crews are busy, the round house force is rushed, the car repairers have all they can handle, the agent's force works early and late, the dispatchers have more than they have had for some time, and if you can find any department in the service that is not full of work you can do better than we can.

From the Advocate.

Will Martin, of the Bend, is keeping books for Edwards & Fair temporarily.

DIED—Mrs. H. King, living 18 miles south, with paralysis, last Saturday morning.

Sam Hartman and family, of Edmund, Oklahoma, are here visiting among their relatives and friends.

Chas. Bacon, who has been confined to his bed with rheumatism for the past week, was up and around to town last Friday.

Theodore Young, son-in-law of Fred Schrepel, living about 7 miles south, had the misfortune of losing his three weeks old baby last Friday.

Rev. C. T. McCaughan, of Winter set, Iowa, minister of the United Presbyterian church, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. M. C. Shafer, of this city.

Albert Donnehohn's son, about two years of age, who lives about eight miles southeast, was kicked by a mule, tearing away the scalp on the left side of his head, last Monday.

Chinch bugs and grasshoppers have materially destroyed the corn in the western and southern parts of the county and in the northern and eastern sections drought has cut the crop at least one half.

The officers made a cleaning out of hoboos last Friday evening. Keeping them on the move. Every time Joe Sprinker dreams about hoboos or his wife hustles him out of bed in the middle of the night upon the start-

ABOUT CLAFLIN.

From the Banner.

E. J. Ingersoll and family have moved onto the Dusenbury ranch.

We have not as yet heard of any damage being done by grasshoppers in this locality.

N. D. Roberts, of Great Bend, is clerking in the Claflin Hardware & Implement Co's. store.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vance are the happy parents of a seven pound boy which arrived there last Friday.

John Weltmer has embarked in the grain business at Red Wing, this state, and we predict a good trade for him.

Will and Ben Giles have bought a threshing machine with which to do their own threshing and a few neighboring jobs.

Lightning seemed to have a grudge at Os Dugan. Tuesday evening during the rain storm, he was knocked from a spring seat by a bolt of lightning which struck about 30 feet from him. As a result of the encounter he is carrying his arm around in a sling and says he can feel the effects of it in his neck and head. But this is not all, for when he reached home he learned that lightning had struck a wheat stack and burned 125 bushels of wheat for him.

Miss Jenna Mecklem returned home Sunday from the Sunday School convention at Osborne.

Steve King, from Junction City, lately of Kansas City, is spending the season with John Reinecke's.

Lucas, Reinecke & Co., are doing good work with their new threshing outfit, averaging about 1,100 bushels per day.

There is a certain threshing outfit which has so many pictures that each man has to go down from the stack if wishing to turn his fork around.

The Heizer elevator should be insured against high water, as the boys in this vicinity intend to take a boat ride in it when the creek comes up.

Lost, strayed or stolen, a man from J. Reinecke & Co's. threshing outfit. (All jokes laid aside.) Finder please return to John Reinecke, three miles south-east of Heizer.

The young people of this vicinity are becoming quite familiar with "Beeze Tucker," but the way the roads are I don't think it will make my head rattle any more.
